SACFCU Supports Small Business Saturday

Congratulations to all of our members who won local gift cards on Friday, November 26th! In support of Small Business Saturday, SACFCU purchased gift cards from local merchants and spent the day giving them to members who visited our offices. This was our way of encouraging people to shop small and support our local communities on Small Business Saturday.

Wise Decisions with Retirement in Mind

Certain financial & lifestyle choices may lead you toward a better future.

Some retirees succeed at realizing the life they want; others don't. Fate aside, it isn't merely a matter of investment decisions that makes the difference. There are certain dos and don'ts - some less apparent than others - that tend to encourage retirement happiness and comfort.
