Retirement Questions That Have Nothing To Do With Money

Think about these factors before you leave work for the last time.

*Retirement planning is not entirely financial.
Your degree of happiness in your "second act"
may depend on some factors that don't come with an obvious price tag. Here are some non-monetary factors to consider as you plan your retirement.*

How to Prepare for Investing II: Start Saving

1. Follow the “50/30/20 Rule” for your income: 50% for necessities, 30% for non-essentials and 20% for savings.
2. Put away 3 to 6 months’ worth of living expenses in case of sudden unemployment or other hardship.
3. Build up cash reserves for large, unexpected expenses.

Daylight Saving Time begins on Sunday, March 14th.
Make sure you change
your clocks.
